INTRODUCTION »

St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri is spearheaded by the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate [CMI] Fathers, who ever since their genesis in 1831, as an indigenous congregation in the Syrian Christian tradition, have undoubtedly been trail blazers of modern education and healthcare. Expanding their horizons and establishing citadels of higher education, notably institutions like Christ University (Bengaluru), Kristu Jayanti College(Bengaluru), Rajagiri Group of Institutions (Kochi), Sacred Heart College, Thevara (Kochi), Christ College, Irinjalakuda (Thrissur) etc., and healthcare establishments like Rajagiri Hospital, Amala Institute of Medical Sciences and Amala Medical College (Thrissur) and Fatima Mata Mission Hospital (Wayanad), the CMI Fathers have dedicated their lives to humanitarian concerns.

The college derives its source of inspiration from the founder of the CMI congregation, St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara, a great educationist who championed revolutionary changes in society through his farsighted vision and mission to develop educational institutions all over the country. Drawing its strength from Jesus Christ, our College, guided by the patron saint, St. Joseph, strives to ignite and kindle the light of knowledge and wisdom to everyone, thereby enlightening and empowering various strata of society, irrespective of the economic status, gender, caste, creed, religion or region.
